Most ceremonies include 2 or 3 hymns. If they are long, you may want to reduce the number of verses, as long as it keeps the sense of the hymn and fits with the chosen tune.

These usually come:

2 Hymns

1 – at the start just after the priest gives the welcome

2 - near the end after the Lord's Prayer but before the blessing.

3 Hymns

1 – at the start just after the priest gives the welcome

2 – after the readings and sermon

3 - near the end after the Lord's Prayer but before the blessing.

The following are some of the most popular, but you can make your own choices.

- All Things Bright and Beautiful
- Amazing Grace
- Bind Us Together
- Come down O Love Divine
- Father hear the prayer we offer
- Give me joy in my heart

- Lord, for the Years
- Lord of All Hopefulness

- Morning has Broken
- Now thank we all our God
- One more step along the road I go
- Praise ye the Lord
